To date, attempts to interview BROWN in a favorable location have been negative. At the time referenced letter requesting permission to interview BROWN was forwarded to the Bureau, investigation revealed BROWN, then unemployed, was applying for a position with a Cook County Agency. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] advised on June 4, 1956, that subject is still unemployed and stated he would advise this office when and where subject became employed.

BROWN's residence in the Trumbull Park Housing Area, scene of racial riots make it disadvantageous for surveillance and to approach BROWN in this area. Trumbull Park is heavily patrolled by Chicago policemen with BROWN's residence in the center of a court, accessible by foot surveillance only. Subject was and is a leader of the minority ^{NEGRO} group residing in the said area.

It is believed that any attempts to approach BROWN in or near the Trumbull Park Area might prove embarrassing to the Bureau and it is therefore requested that at this time said permission to interview be rescinded.

Subject's name is not being included in the Security Index at this time.

While subject's name was possibly in possession of a member of the administrative staff of the Illinois-Indiana District of the Communist Party in 1956, and information on 1956 Communist Party registration form compares favorably with that of the subject, no definite information has been developed to indicate actual current Communist Party membership on the part of the subject. It is noted that an informant believed subject is a Communist Party member; however, this was strictly the informant's opinion and informant was unable to furnish any definite data as to why he has formed this opinion, other than from the people with whom subject associates.

Accordingly, it is essential that additional investigation be conducted by your office to determine subject's current activities.
In the event sufficient subversive information concerning him is obtained to warrant the inclusion of his name in the Security Index, you should

Re: FRANK LONDON BROWN

The following is a resume of the subversive activities of FRANK LONDON BROWN:

On 3/21/56, CG5824-S*, who has furnished reliable information in the past, made available the 1956 CP registrations for the Foster (Packing) Division of the Illinois - Indiana CP District. The registrations did not reflect the names of the registrants, but did reflect the age, sex, race, national origin, length of time in organization, occupation in industry, union and local, name of mass organization, dues paid to (month), do you read the "Daily Worker", "The Worker" regularly, and club or division position. Information on one of said registrations reflected that a male, age 27, of the negro race had been in the organization 7 years, a member of the Packing union, active in the NAACP, was a regular reader of "The Worker" and had no club or division position. Information above concerning the registrant coincided with information received concerning FRANK LONDON BROWN.

Reliable informant advised BROWN attended an NAACP-CP club meeting in December, 1955. Reliable informant stated the name FRANK BROWN appeared under the word "Transfers" in material in possession of LOU DISKIN on 5/22/56 who had been identified as recently National CP coordinator for the Packing Industry and presently Organizational Secretary of the Foster Division in the Illinois-Indiana CP District. Reliable informant advised that the following information appeared in documents in the possession of [REDACTED] "FRANK BROWN 10717 Yates Textile". It is to be noted that BROWN resides at 10717 S. Yates, Chicago, Illinois, and is presently an Organizer for the Textile Workers Union of America, Chicago, Illinois, having been so employed since April, 1956. It is also to be noted that BROWN had been employed as Program Coordinator, District #1, United Packinghouse Workers of America - AFL-CIO, Chicago from 2/55 to 2/56, at which time he was laid-off due to return of former Program Coordinator from military service.

According to reliable informants, BROWN attended and spoke at a Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born conference in Chicago in April, 1955. Informant, who collects security information in the Chicago area, advised BROWN participated in a picket demonstration on 10/7/55 sponsored by the NAACP-UPWA-CIO against the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee hearings in Chicago to investigate the sending of Communist propaganda through U.S. Mails, and that BROWN signed 1950 Progressive Party nominating petition and was an active Progressive Party member in 1951. Reliable informant advised BROWN subscribed to "The Worker" for a period of 1 year in 1951.

Informant advised that said meeting was not entirely "closed", as FRANK BROWN delivered some material during the middle of the meeting, and that those in attendance had been warned that BROWN thought they were just a caucus. It was felt by those in attendance that it would be better to back FRANK BROWN, of Trumbull Park, over an opposing candidate for Secretary in the December 16, 1955, NAACP elections.

T-2 on May 14, 1956, advised that the CP Illinois-Indiana District, in late 1955, as part of its United Front Program, designated the Chicago Branch NAACP as a point of concentration in non-Communist "right-led" organizations in the Chicago area. The CP, accordingly, instructed many of its members to become members of the NAACP and to become active in it in order to influence its program, particularly in civil rights issues and for the further purpose of making new contacts among Negroes.

Progressive Party (PP)

The National Committee of the CP, USA, in issuing its final text of the "Resolutions Growing out of the Presidential Elections," in "Political Affairs" issue of July, 1953, states in substance that in 1948, the CP helped stimulate the formation of the PP and correctly supported the PP through the 1952 elections. It then states: "However, the mistake our Party made was to confuse this task with the historic task of forming a new mass party of the people. As a consequence, there existed the wrong estimate that the formation of the PP represented something more than the simple emergence of a great mass people's party."

As a result of this reasoning, the resolution concludes that the "PP, the CP, and other progressive forces" must unite in a broad, mass front coalition.

Concerning "Political Affairs" mentioned above, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, a convicted CP functionary testifying in the case "United States versus ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, ET AL," on October 20, 1952, stated that "Political Affairs" has been the theoretical organ of the CP since the publication's beginning in 1945.

On May 22, 1957, FRANK LONDON BROWN was contacted in the vicinity of his residence, 308 West 95th Street, Chicago, by SAs [redacted] and [redacted]. Immediately following the identification of the interviewing agents as SAs of the FBI, the Bureau's jurisdiction in security investigations was explained to subject in that such jurisdiction is derived from the laws of the United States as promulgated by the Congress of the United States and also by presidential orders.

It was also pointed out to BROWN that the Bureau has no interest in legitimate union management activities, but only in the subversive infiltration of unions as is being conducted by the Communist Party (CP).

BROWN then invited the agents into his home where the interview was continued.

When queried about possessing any knowledge of CP activity, it being explained that the FBI was interested as to whether or not the subject had been approached by the CP due to his active participation in the near riots between the Negroes and the whites in the Chicago Trumbull Park Housing Development in Chicago in 1955, BROWN disclaimed any knowledge of CP activity on his part or on the part of anyone else. It was pointed out to BROWN that the CP is usually quick to capitalize on a situation such as that described.

BROWN was asked if he would be willing to aid the FBI, at which BROWN stated that he did not want to do so due to the fact that inasmuch as he is primarily concerned with supporting his family through his job as Organizer for the Textile Workers Union of America and with becoming a writer, he felt he could give none of his time to any other activity. He stated that he has just finished writing a book on the Trumbull Park situation and if published, will devote more time to writing.

BROWN went on to state that he felt that the FBI had failed him in 1955 and because of that, he was not willing to help the FBI in 1957, even if he felt so inclined to do so. He elaborated on the point by stating that in 1955 he had brought to the attention of the FBI and other Federal and local agencies what he thought to be the injustice of the Trumbull Park situation. He stated that the Federal agencies failed to come to his aid.

The limitations of Federal jurisdiction were then explained to BROWN by the agents whereupon he stated that he now could understand why no aid came to him and realized now that such a situation can only be altered by an act of legislation.

BROWN added as an afterthought that his personal answer to overcoming "Trumbull Park" is to become personally wealthy for in that way the color lines fall.

BROWN was very cordial and listened attentively during the entire interview, which lasted approximately three hours.

Due to the fact that BROWN had another engagement, the interview was terminated with the suggestion that the agents contact him again soon thereafter, in order to further elaborate on the reason why his aid to the FBI could be very valuable to the United States.

CG 100-30890

BROWN stated that he was sure that a further interview would not change his mind and pointedly stated that he would not appreciate another contact. The agents then departed with the request that BROWN keep the interview in strict confidence.

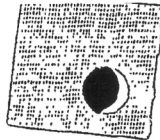

Evaluation:

It is the opinion of the agents that BROWN will always rationalize every aspect of his life henceforth in the light of "Trumbull Park." BROWN was receptive to the remarks of the agents and was courteous, exhibiting no hostility whatsoever during the interview.

Factors precluding a reinterview are:

BROWN's seeking to publish his book and continuing his writing pursuits, and his completely apathetic attitude toward the Communist exploitation of the Negro.

No further interview is contemplated at this time because with this attitude, BROWN is completely unreceptive to further discussion.
